Please read this pamphlet carefully. It contains a brief description of UM-SHIP plan benefits, as well as the extra benefits you receive as an UM-SHIP enrollee. These include access to emergency global services when you study/travel abroad, More information about UM-SHIP coverage and additional plan benefits is available at miami.edu/student-health and <https://www.aetnastudenthealth.com/um>.

Student Health Plan

Student Eligibility

All domestic students actively enrolled in 6 or more credit hours per semester or considered full time (in a program requiring documentation of health insurance coverage; exceptions listed at miami.edu/student-health), must purchase the student health insurance unless they show proof of comparable coverage. All International students regardless of credit hours are required to be insured in the plan.

Students must actively attend classes for at least the first 31 days (unless an official medical withdrawal has been approved by the Student Health Service) after the date for which coverage is purchased. Non-Degree seeking, non-credit courses, certificate, online-or weekend only programs or courses do not fulfill the eligibility requirements.

Dependent Eligibility

Eligibility is limited to only those who are enrolled in the 14-week program. Enrolled students may also insure their dependents at the time the student is first able to enroll in the plan (within 14 days of the start of the semester). Eligible dependents are the spouse and children.

Students who enroll for a qualifying life event do not have the option to enroll dependents until the following academic year.

To enroll dependents of students, please visit the website www.aetnastudenthealth.com/um.

Student Health Services

The Aetna Student Insurance Plan includes a range of benefits that are designed specifically to provide you with excellent care, and minimize your out-of-pocket costs, wherever possible.

The Aetna Student Insurance Plan is designed to be used in conjunction with Student Health Services. To obtain the greatest level of benefits, (most are covered at 100%), you will need to initiate care at Student Health Services, where treatment will be administered, or a referral issued.

Student Health Service provides an after-hours line. Students can reach the Student Health on call Provider by calling 305-284-9100. However, in the case of a medical emergency, when away from the campus or when Student Health Service is closed, you can seek care directly from any doctor in the Aetna Student Health Network by accessing Aetna Docfind or call Aetna Student Health at 866-639-1420. Call Aetna 24-Hour Nurse Line 1-800-556-1555.

Please visit miami.edu/student-health for further information.

The Counseling Center

The Counseling Center offers a variety of services to students, including short-term psychotherapy, individual and group counseling, career decisions. For appointment and more information, please call 305-284-5511.
